

Stella Award Programme

Ingersoll Rand prides itself on delivering Stella service to our external and internal customers. It's so important to our business, to the engagement of our people and our customer's experience that we have developed a Stella Award programme. This programme is an internal recognition and appreciation programme, focused on rewarding individuals who have:

- Demonstrated exemplary customer service;
- Raised our brand profile;
- Gone above and beyond the call of duty;

If you have received or witnessed Stella service from our team that you believe deserves recognition, then we would like to know about it. Please nominate an Ingersoll Rand team member by emailing your story (be specific as possible) through to one of our managers:
